

CHEEK MANDIBLE MAXILLA: ESSENTIALS OF MANAGEMENT

Date: Monday, 7th January, 2019 | Time: 9:00 am to 5:30 pm

Venue: Convention Centre, 1st floor Kapol Niwas, Sir H. N. Reliance Foundation Hospital and Research Centre

In our country, Head and Neck cancers form the largest group by incidence; and among these, cancers of the Cheek and Gum predominate. Conversely, these are relatively rare cancers in the Western world. Owing to this reality, these sites do not gain priority in meetings conducted internationally. We thus chose to organize a CME dedicated to these sites, with a clear emphasis to the two important bones in proximity, i.e. the Mandible and the Maxilla.

With a very distinguished National & International faculty led by Prof. Jatin P. Shah and Dr. Vijay Haribhakti, we hope to provide scientific content of the highest quality, in a unique format that will promote both theoretical as well as practical learning.

Our goal is to address the three vital pillars of care for these cancers, namely: Resection, Reconstruction and Rehabilitation.

This meeting should be of interest to all practitioners, students and trainees in the field of Head and Neck Oncology, Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and Maxillofacial Surgery, and to all Medical and Radiation Oncologists dedicated to the management of Head and Neck Cancer.
